this book focusses on the importance of creating an internal assessment program to periodically assess the maturity of the organizations transformation journey it discusses the best approach to designing and implementing an assessment program by answering key questions posed when people resist the book begins with selecting the positioning of the program not as an audit but as an opportunity to review strengths and opportunities through to selecting senior leader support to design of the program and developing the assessors more than 10 case studies are documented to show how organizations have approached their assessment programs lessons learned and successes and challenges faced the book leads the reader through the process of selling the concept and importance of transformation and lean assessments to embed the desired behaviors within workplace culture with many case studies the reader is guided to design their own programs and develop their own assessors this increases the probability of sustainability of the transformation program by focusing on and maturing the behaviors the transformation programs are trying to drive for example one of the most well known assessments is the shingo prize this book explains the thinking behind the shingo model and shares examples of assessments that support it other examples of assessments are covered such as process maturity quality and business assessments
